Grand finale from April Verch provides highlight at Hamnavoe

May 3rd, 2013 by Ryan Taylor

Highlight of the night, though, must have been the grand finale provided by the April Verch Band. The fiddler easily got the crowd behind her with old-time Canadian tunes and Appalachian ballads.

But she also provided the highlight for the evening with her mesmerising, energetic (and unexpectedly lengthy) step-dancing numbers, which provoked an impromptu applause long before she had actually finished.

There was bass music, clawhammer and banjo playing galore, and Vetch's infectious tunes are sure to go down well. See y'all around!
